A BIG CROWD IN THE TOWN FOR THE CELEBRA-TION-THE NEW FLAGPOLE USED.

exercises commemorative of the Fourth July in this quaint and early village of the Revolution were never more complete or patriotic than on The crowds began assembling early from neighboring villages, and were augmented throughout the day by the arrival of others from points between New-York City and the Connecti at line. An affair previous to the beginning of xercises, and strikingly in contrast with the olden was a long parade by the Rye Wheelmen and women friends, in which a number of visiting theelmen took part. The procession passed through he streets of the village, hedeoked with flags and unting, and attracted much attention. It was en, attired to represent Uncle Sam. William Edwards, who was herald, was dressed as a tramp, and was hooted at by the children of the village, to whom his identity was unknown. The procession cas followed in carriages by the committees, the lorgy of various denominations, Lawrence Post No. R. G. A. R., under the command of Judge J. R. ch, the children of the schools, the Mertz Rees Band, the Rye Fife and Drum Corps, the Rye Fire

The exercises came to an end with music Merts Reed Band, which played a "March of After the formal speaking was ver the crowd discovered Whitelaw Reid, who had en sitting in the back seats with his wife and been sitting in the back seats with his wife and doughter, gave three cheers for him and insisted on a speech. Mr. Reid briefly returned his thanks, expressed his pleasure at being at home again to join with them in this patriotic demonstration and at finding that they were celebrating the Fourth of July in the historic old town by raising the flag of their country to a greater height than it had ever been raised there before, and with a greater galaxy of stars than had shone on it before during the whole century of its glory. Repeated cheers were given Mr. Reld as he retired, and subsequently the veterans present went forward one by one to shake hands with him. During the exercises an alarm of fire called the fire company away, and, with the exception of this organization, the other bodies composing the parade marched, after the exercises were over, to Depot Square, where they were reviewed and then distanded. In the evening a display of fireworks was given in Depot Square by E. Pope, jr., and his assistants. The following persons were members of the various committees of the day.

Among those who have assisted in establish-ing the church is Patrick Farrell, who gave the land; William Berry, Michael McHugh, Patrick Marvel and others. The church is of neat cottage style, and is an ornament to the village. Fifteen stained glass memorial windows give the building an excellent appearance. The regular services will begin on Sunday, July 12, and will be conducted by Father Kellner. The first bond issue has been made by the village of Pelham, and 100 $1,000 twenty-year bonds were placed on the market last week, and were readily taken. A picnic was held at the Wartburg Orphan Farm by the Ladies' Ald Society of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, of New-York, last Wednesday. About two hundred guests spent the day enjoyably.

The Pelham postoffice has been advanced to a third-class office, and Mrs. K. T. Merritt, the postmistress, has received notice to that effect, and also of her reappointment for a term of four years, taking from July 1.

HARRISON

John A. Parsons has presented a fine collection books to the Harrison Fire Company.

Joseph Park and W. R. Bull have contributed 260 each for the purpose of changing the organization of District No. 6 from a common district to that of a union free school. A meeting of the voters will be held on July 21 to take action on the subject.

Harrison-ave, is undergoing repairs and will be considerably widened. The road, when completed, will be a great convenience to those traveling be-tween Harrison and Mamaroneck.

There was a meeting of the Katonah Water Company in the reading-rooms on Friday evening, and the following officers were elected: Clarence Whit-man, president; Dr. Walton J. Carpenter, vice-president; Harry R. Barrett, secretary and treasurer The directors are Samuel B. Hoyt, Albert Hoyt, Elgar S. Hoyt, William H. Robertson and Henry W. Kellogg. A well is being sunk just east of the new eter, and the water is to be pumped in a reservoir on the hill west of the village. A system of pires has been laid, and water will be supplied at reason-able rates.

TARRYTOWN.

An alarm of fire was turned in on Thursday evenan alarm of the wife historict box, but when the fire company responded they found the smouldering remains of a little blaze in a woodhouse.

The tenth annual club tournament of the Sleepy Hollow Tennis Club opened yesterday morning with an unusual variety of games. This is the first tourney an unusual variety of games. This is the first tourney in the last six years in which women's doubles were played. There being no entries for men's doubles, the Thayer brothers continue as champions unchallenged. There were a large number of spectators present, and tosa was served on the grounds by Mrs. Todd, assisted by Miss Silver and Miss Bwings. Fine weather favored the players, and some excellent matches were the result.

The Town Board of Health met on Friday in the town clerk's office, Tarrytown, to discuss the matter of Landers's boneyard, which is back of Ardsley. Some time ago the State Board of Health declared Mr. Landers's works a public nuisance, but the Town Board does not seem to be so sure.

VONKERS THE ELABORATE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH

Not in years has Independence Day been obawed in Yonkers as it was yesterday. Previous to last year there was no formal celebration of the day. Fings were displayed from business places and private houses, the noise of fire-cracker and cannon was heard all day, in the evening there were few individual displays of fireworks, and there the day emied. But yesterday four American flags were swung to the breeze with appropriate ceremonies, and there was a parade in which, it is estimated, nearly two thousand men took part. The day dawned cloudy, and it was feared that the usual showers would mar the programme, but one came. Shortly after 9 o'clock in the foreno John C. Shotts, escorted the 4th Separate Company to the building of the Young Men's Christian As ociation, in Main-st. On its roof were Lyman obb, fr., the president, and William F. Haskett, the secretary, of the association. After a patriotic election by the White Plains Band, these gentle en raised the flag, and the 4th Separate fired three volleys. A few minutes later Kitching and John C. Fremont posts, of the Grand Army, with Mur-ray's Band and a number of the members of the nal staff of Grand Marshal Shotts, formed hollow square about a new flagpole on the grounds formal flag-raising took place. In presenting the of the City Club, in South Broadway, where a more flag to the club on behalf of the subscribing mem-bers, School Trustee James V. Lawrence said, in ruling passion of our people. It was mixed with the purple tide of the founders' lives, and, circulating with that tide through their veins, has descended through every generation to their posterity, making every feature of our country's glorious story. From the day of the Declaration of Independence the people of the United States were no longer the despised fragment of a distant empire. longer the despised fragment of a distant empire. They were a nation, asserting as a right and maintaining by war its own existence. A nation was born in a day—the only country in all the world's history with a known berthday. The flame of liberty might be extinguished in Greece and Rome, but the light of its glowing embers was kept bright and strong on the shores of America. If there be a man who can think of the glorious achievements of his country's past, who can see scenes of savage desolation transformed, almost with the suddenness of enchantment, into those of fruitfulness and beauty, crowned with flourishing cities, with the noblest of all populations—if there be a man, I say, who can witness all these things without feeling his heart beat high, that man has none of the spriit of patriotism or love of country. The emblem of that spriit, and the supreme but silent representative of our country and our country's fame and power, is this flag. To maintain it cost the founders of our Government seven weary years of deadly struggle, but, suffering every privation in the cause of liberty, they at last planted it upon the ramparts of eternal freedom. To protect its supremacy from treason's uplifted hand has since cost unnumbered lives. But to-day we stand a united people, separate as the billows but one as the sean indissoluble Union. Everywhere that sacred emblem should wave and adorn every gathering of men. Feeding this, certain members of the City Club have contributed to the purchase of this flag, and at their request I present it to you." The flag was accepted for the club by Surrogate Theodore H. Silkman in a few words. It was raised by President Shotts, assisted by Treasurer Underhiil, The Rev. Dr. David Cole made a few remarks in closing. There were present at the raising Mayor Peene, City Attorney James M. Hunt, Aldermen Lesile Sutherland, George H. Kaier and John H. Southwick, Commissioner of Public Works Samuel L. Cooper, ex-City Judge F. X. Donoghue, ex-Senator Frank P. Treanor, Fire Commissioner Jam They were a nation, asserting as a right and main-

Knights of. Honor; the Rev. James E. Freeman, Coroner Miles and a large number of the club members.

While the flag was being raised the four divisions which were to take part in the parade formed and shortly after 10 o'clock moved. The line of march was from Getty Square to Palisade-ave., Elm-st., Nepperhan-ave., Ashburton-ave., North Broadway, Irving Place, Warburton-ave., North Broadway, Irving Place, Warburton-ave., Dock-st., North Broadway, Hudson-s., Riverdale-ave., Ludlow-st., South Broadway, Kellenger-st., New-Main-st. to Getty Square and disbanded. It passed St. John's and St. Joseph's hospitals, at each of which insultations a halt w.s. made and a flag presented by Kitching Post. George R. Hendrickson made the presentation at St. John's and William F. Cochran received it for the haspital; Edward J. Mitchelimads the presentation at St. Joseph's, and Dr. Peter A. Collan received it. A band played patriotic airs, and the Yonkers Teutonia Society sang "The Star Spangled Banner" in German at each hospital. In front of Manor Hall Mayor Peene, Aldermen Skinner, Garrison, Gaul, Tompkins, Mooney, Houston, Southwick, Receiver of Taxes Henry B. Archer, Assessor M. F. Mitchell and Health Commissioner George B. Wray reviewed the parade, which took nearly half an hour to pass. The organizations represented were the Grand Army, Sons of Veterans, Yonkers Teutonia and Turn Verein, the Fire Department, American Workmen, Knights of Pythias, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Iron Moulders' Union, Journeymen Horseshoers, Foresters, Carpenters' Union and the Red Men. Organizations were present from Mount Vernon, New-Rochelle, Tarrytown, Irvington, Sing Sing, Dobbs Ferry, White Plains and Wakefield.

John J. Sloane, president of the Fourth of July Celebration Committee, and his associates, with Grand Marshal John C. Shotts, are deserving of the praise for making the celebration such a success. The ready response which the committee received from the public in the shape of financial support shows that their efforts are appreciated, and the celebration of Independence Day in the future is now assured.

After the parade the organizations having visitors from out of town entertained them in their several halls and the afternoon was spent socially.

The celebration of the day was brought to a close from a float anchored off the clubhouse. From till 8:30 o'clock there was a concert in the tennis avilion. At dark the fireworks were set off, and he display was the finest the club has ever given. Dancing followed in the clubbouse till a late hour. The committee which planned the affair was composed of Andrew Deyo, chairman; Thomas E. Booth, Paul B. Rossire, Benjamin G. Westcott, Edwin A. Oliver, Robert G. Jackson, George B. Skinner, Arthur S. Thompson, Thomas Rayner, John H. Keeler, jr., and Charles P. Young.

The Mount Vernon police on Thursday last re-East Chester, missing, and asked the Yonkers po-lice to look for him. Last night Arthur Brazier, of No. 151 Waverly-st., found Mr. Johnson's horse and buggy in a small pond in Midland-ave., near the pipe line, and turned them over to Roundsman Lawrence, of the Bronxville sub-station. It is sup-posed Mr. Johnson is drowned. It is probable the pond will be searched to-day.

MOUNT VERNON.

Richard Walsh, a coachman, and his wife, Mary Waish, a housekeeper, both in the employ of Walter Bower, who lives at No. 341 South Third-ave., it is alleged, caused a disturbance yesterday morning, and their employer sent for the police to place then under arrest. Acting Roundsman Gieltzman ar-rested them, and was on his way to the station rested them, and was on his way to the station house when the prisoners broke loose and attacked Fim. Chief Foley, who was patrolling the city with a horse and wagon, heard the officer call for assistance, and reached the scene in time to help Glettzman. The prisoners were subdued with the assistance of the chief, and were placed in cells. The case will be heard this morning.

The Mount Vernon Young Men's Christian Asso station and the Yonkers Athletic Baseball clubs played two warmly contested games yesterday at he home grounds. The score in the morning was: Young Men's Christian Association, 21; Yonkers, 7, in the afternoon the Young Men's Christian Asso-ciation won, 6 to 2.

A delegation of the Mount Vernon Cycle Club. forty-eight strong, were off bright and early yester day morning to attend the bicycle carniva, at Patchogue, Long Island. C. W. Stunt, a bicyclist, of No. 41 South Fourth-ave., while riding between Fifth-ave. and the Young Men's Christian Association grounds, in Adams-st., lost a roll of bills containing $70. He is offering a reward of $20 for the return of the money.

A fine life-size crayon portrait of ex-Postmaster Henry Huss has been placed in the rooms of the Board of Trade. He retired as provident of that organization last spring, and the portrait was made in appreciation of his services.

The promoters of the new public library delighted over the record that organization has made in six weeks. In that time almost three thousand volumes have been drawn. Of this number, two-thirds have been works of fiction. The library is open every day, except Sunday, from 9 to 11 a. m. and from 3 to 9 p. m.

The school census which is being taken under the direction of the Board of Education is nearly finished. The enumeration to date is about four thousand, which indicates a great increase in the population of the city.

The residents of Mount Vernon fairly outdid all former efforts yesterday in their celebration of th Fourth. The principal occasion was the raising of a splendid flag at Garden and Egmont aves., under the auspices of the Mount Vernon Improvement Asis the mast and topmast of the Vigilant, which was sent as a gift to its present owners. It is 90 feet high. The programme as given was as follows: Overture by the bund; prayer, the Rev. F. B. Kellogg; dedication and resing of flag; reading Declaration of Independence, by Judge Isaac N. Mills; patriotte selections. Amaranth, Quartet; address, by the Rev. Dr. Mains; patriotte music, band; short addresses, by Congressman B. L. Fairchild, sociation. PROFESSOR HERRMANN ENTERTAINS THE CON-VICTS IN THE STATE PRISON. The Fourth of July was a red letter day in th State Prison. As is customary in that Institution on holidays, there were extra rations issued to the men. In the morning for breakfast the bill of fare consisted of boiled ham, new potatoes, tea and sugar, and the usual excellent prison bread. Dinner, which the men ate in their cells after the exercise of the day were over, consisted of six ounces of cream cheese, about two pounds of ginger cake, tea and sugar, and two eigars for each prisoner. Shortly after 10 o'clock the convicts were assembled in the chapel of the new administration building, vesterday being the first occasion upon which this immense apartment, occupying the entire second floor, had been used. It is still unfinished, and being a mass of masonry, iron girders and roughly cemented floor, the seating accommodations and the stage for the exercises were merely temporary. The stage was liberally decorated with flags and bunting. The feature of the day was the entertainmen magician. The Professor some time ago volunteered magician. The Professor some time ago volunteered his services for this occasion. Assembled in the room were over 1,300 convicts, besides the guards and keepers and other prison officers and their families, and a number of guests of Warden Sage, who had been invited to witness the entertainment. The convict choir and orchestra presented the following programme before the arrival of the magician. The numbers were all well handled and evoked applause from the audience.

The Lone Grave"
In Old Madrid"
The Rand Played On"
Only a Silver Ring
A Mother is the Best Sweetheart of All".
Dream Faces" Barytone

The musical portion of the entertainment was brought to a satisfactory finish by a violin solo by Professor Stretti, the leader of Professor Herr-mann's orchestra, who fairly carried his auditors away with delight over his mastery of the instru-

Warden Sage then introduced Professor Herrmann, telling the prisoners that they were indebted to the professor's kindness of heart and generosity for the entertainment about to be presented.

Professor Herrmann for over an hour gave the audience an exhibition of his wonderful feats of magic. Card, handkerehief, watch, silk hat, rabbit and many other tricks followed each other in rapid succession, the professor being assisted by Misses Robinson and Boomski, his colored "familiar." The entertainment ended with a wonderful exhibition of bullet-catching, for the first time attempted with builets fired from a pistol. The pistol used was one of a pair presented to Herrmann by the Suitan of Turkey. They are beautiful weapons, gold mounted, and cost $3,000. One of these was loaded by a convict, four marked bullets being piaced in the weapon by as many convicts, and then the pistol was fired pointblank at the prefessor, who stood about twenty feet away, and who caught the bullets most gracefully in a plate. The entertainment was received by the convicts with every manifestation of delight, and when Professor Herrmann bade them goodly he was warmly applauded.

Professor Herrmann came to this village in a special car attached to the $35 a. m. train on the Central Hudson Railroad. The use of the car was given by the general passenger agent of the New-York Central road. Accompanying him were Professor Stretti, Mannager Edward Thurner, Commissioner Stretti, Mannager Edward Thurner, Commissioner Jacob Hess and Mrs. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Steinhart, Max Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Pallme, Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dazlan, James Mead, Henry Darwin, John Hyde and William Scott.

After the exercises were over the guests were entertained at luncheon by Warden Sage. ment. Warden Sage then introduced Professor Herr

The bicycle race yesterday morning attracted a large number of sightseers. The course was from Barlow & Co.'s store, in Main-st., this village, to Barlow & Co. 8 store, in Stance of nine miles. There were ten entries. The start was a poor one, as one of the contestants took "a header" before he had gone two hundred yards from the starting point, and gone two hundred yards from the starting point, and immediately he had five other wheels and wheelmen piled on top of him. The first prize was won by Herbert Jacoby, of Croton; time, 29 minutes. The other contestants crossed the home line in the following order: Stanley Searles, Frederick Northrup, James Delaney, Sylvester Lyon, W. H. Hapgood, acted as referee, Village Trustee C. H. Stevens and Police Justice M. C. Palmer as judges and Town Clerk Robert T. Dennis as timekeeper.

The dance given at the Mount Pleasant Field on Friday evening was a successful social affair. Rall's Orchestra furnished the music, and Fourth Rall's Orchestra furnished the music, and Fourth of July, 1896, had been an established fact for some hours before the party broke up. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Carpenter, Ms. Caroline Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Genet, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. of the drivers, Samuel Tuttle, twenty years old, was thrown out and badly injured about the head. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a frame buildfound to be on fire. The Fire Department promptly responded to the alarm, and the flames were quickly extinguished.

MOUNT KISCO.

The Fourth was celebrated here by a combined picnic and festival in the grove near New-Castle in he afternoon and evening. The Sunday-schools and village officials, as well as the fraternal organizavillage officials, as we as in the public square and marched to the grounds. Samuel Raymond acted as grand marshal. The Rev. Charles H. McAnney, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered the oration, and an enjoyable time was had by all. Ground has been broken for a new house on Bedford-ave, for Frederick C. Pelton, who expects to erect a handsome home.

There was a meeting of the Mount Kisco Fire Department in the rooms belonging to the company on Thursday evening.

PORT CHESTER.

The main feature of the Independence Day celebration yesterday was the presentation by the irm of West & Simons. The exercises took place in front of the factory at 9 o'clock and were witnessed by a large audience. Patriotic airs were played by the band. The presentation speech was played by the band. The presentation speech was by the Rev. H. W. Hunt, of the Congregational Church, and the flag was accepted on behalf of the firm by the Rev. W. T. Pray, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Rye. The Rev. R. L. Jackson and the Rev. W. H. Bowden made addresses. The flag was raised by Miss Marilla Starr, a forewoman of the factory, who originated and executed the plans for the demonstration. The firm was represented by Mr. Simons, and a letter was read from the senior partner, O. M. West, who was absent from the city, expressing the hope that the flag would prove an emblem of loyalty for both the firm and its employes.

The children of St. Mary's Parochial Schools observed the day by giving a flag to the Church of Our Lady of Mercy. The exercises were held at the flagstaff near the rectory, and were simple and impressive. Little Miss Gianneti, a bright and interesting Italian girl, delivered the presentation address, and the flas was accented for the church by the Rev. John A. Walters. The exercises closed with the singing of patriotic selections.

The opening of the connecting ferry between Staten Island and Elizabethport, N. J., yesterday afternoon brought out a crowd of three thousand persons to the terminus of the line at Mariners' Harbor. The opening was marked by speeches by Mayor Rankin, of Elizabeth; John Kean, Jr., E. P. Doyle, Joseph M. Keatinge, John P. O'Brien and other persons. The speeches were all of a congratulatory pature, and interpolated with historical subjects. The ferry is intended to open up New Jersey by trolley to Staten Island, and thence to South Beach and Coney Island. At the company's wharf a dinner was served, to which over two nun-dred guests sat down.

It was a field day for Prohibitionists at Prohibition Park yesterday, and the fact that Joshua Leverng, of Maryland, the Presidential candidate of that party, attended the meetings served to attract nearly one thousand people from New-York City and Staten Island. A large banner, containing the portraits of the Prohibition Party, was stretched across the principal street at the Park. At the banner-raising there were speeches by the Rev. W. P. F. Fer guson, George R. Scott and the Rev. J. C. Fernald. The Richmond County Prohibitionists had a mass-meeting in the auditorium at 10 o'clock. Dr. I. K. Funk declared that the party was growing since the "split," as, like the split among the Abolitionists, those who separated themselves became new storm centres, which would finally unite and would sweep the country. A speech was also made by Mr. Lever-
